Dear President Baba,

Greetings from Kyung Hee University.

On behalf of Kyung Hee University, I would like to convey our sincerest and deepest congratulation on the occasion of Soka University's 50th anniversary. Over the past five decades, Soka University has achieved tremendous accomplishments in the field of education and global peace of humankind.

Kyung Hee University and Soka University have successfully established a concrete relationship through those years especially upon the same value of 'Humanity'. Together in this firm cooperation, I believe both institutions can navigate further to foster and cultivate the leaders with a creative humanity for the civilized society.

We look forward to strengthening our partnership, further expanding our collaborations in various fields in the future to enhance international exchange and understanding between two institutions and moreover between two nations.

Once again, it is my great pleasure to congratulate 50th Anniversary of Soka University. I wish we could overcome the unfamiliar difficulties of current era and look forward to the stronger collaboration both institutions will create in the future.

Sincerely,

Wonseok Chung
