Professor Yoshihisa BABA
President
Soka University

Dear Mr. President,

On behalf of Plekhanov Russian University of Economics and on my own behalf, I sincerely congratulate the faculty members, students and staff of Soka University on a significant event - the 50th anniversary of its the founding. Founded in 1971, Soka University has achieved brilliant results over its half-century history and received well-deserved praise in the educational community.

Keeping the best traditions, Soka University is a vibrant authoritative educational and scientific center, which makes a significant contribution to the development of education and science in Japan.

The successful research activities, qualified teaching staff and wide student audience allow Soka University to rightfully keep high positions in the international educational space.

I am convinced that the professional experience and creative potential of the team, as well as openness and trust will help to achieve further success in the development of the University.

Taking this opportunity let me express my confidence in the development of bilateral cooperation between our universities and wish success in the implementation of the goals and prosperity of Soka University.

Best regards,

Ivan V. LOBANOV
Rector
