

To all those who are devoted to Soka University!

My most heartfelt congratulations on the 50th anniversary of Soka University!

We here at Jeju National University would like to send our accolades to Soka University for its efforts and support in fostering creative global citizens who can lead the world's sustainable peace and prosperity.

Jeju National University, which had invited Dr. Daisaku Ikeda, the founder of Soka University, to confer an honorary doctorate in literature, cherishes the deepening relationship with Soka University and wishes to maintain a cooperative alliance as long as possible.

It is our sincerest hope that Soka University celebrating its 50th anniversary will continue to develop and prosper so that it will rise as the hope and pillar of mankind around the world, like a purlieu where a thousand good things and the scattered clouds will gather together.

We solemnly give our pledge to support and cheer on the resplendent activities carried out by Soka University.
