Dear President Yoshihisa Baba,

I would like to convey my heartiest congratulations to Soka University as it celebrates its 50th anniversary. This milestone is a true indication of your success and hard work.

Over the years, Soka University has continued to attract students of the highest caliber and made a significant contribution to the development of higher education in the region. Meanwhile, it has built an impressive portfolio of international exchanges and academic links. The academic success which Soka University has achieved in 50 years is truly remarkable.

University of Macau is privileged to have worked with Soka University since 1990. Our two universities have cooperated successfully in international exchange programs in the past three decades. We would like to thank you for all your support and cooperation with University of Macau. It is my strong belief that our longstanding and fruitful collaborations will remain as strong as in the past years. We look forward to broadening our partnership with Soka University in the near future.

On behalf of University of Macau, I would like to wish Soka University, its staff and students, all the best for the future.

Yours sincerely

Professor Yonghua SONG
Rector
University of Macau
