(3) Points to Note

- (1) If you do not complete the necessary procedures for payment during the time limits stipulated above, the university will revoke its approval of your admission.
- (2) The amounts of Annual tuition, Facilities and maintenance fee, Laboratory fee and Health expenditure are for one semester. Tuition fees for a whole year is twice the amounts above.
- (3) If you decide not to enter the university for personal reasons following completion of the admissions procedure, the university will return to you the annual tuition, etc., excluding the admission fee. However, this applies only if you notify the university by the day before your entrance ceremony.

10. Other Matters

(1) Applying for a Certificate of Eligibility for Residence Status and Obtaining a Visa

In principle, non-Japanese applicants need to obtain student residence status once their admission to the university has been approved. After acceptance to the university, prospective students need to complete the procedures to acquire residence status, enter, and reside in Japan.

- Application by the university on your behalf

The university will apply for a Certificate of Eligibility on your behalf. Please submit the Checklist for Certificate of Eligibility Application (using the form provided by the university) during the admissions procedure. Be aware that the university will not apply for a Certificate of Eligibility for you if you do not submit this checklist.

- Certificates of Eligibility are approved by the Ministry of Justice, and the university cannot assume any responsibility in situations where approval is denied.
- Even if the university applies on your behalf, the Ministry of Justice may require you to submit certificates or other documents as necessary.

(2) Scholarships for International Students

Academic Fee Exemption

At Soka, international students are granted full exemption from academic fees (not including the admission fee or insurance fees). Applicants who wish to receive exemption shall apply for the Exemption. Submit the Soka University International Student Application for Academic Fee Exemption and attach official documents issued by public agencies stating the household income and income tax information for the most recent 1 year (*1).

*1: “Most recent 1 year” refers to 2016 (January to December) for Admission Phase I

* In principle, household income refers to those of the father and mother or an individual other than a parent if that supporter is primarily financing the household.

- Scholarship application results will be notified jointly with admission decisions to granted applicants only.
- After enrollment, a review of exemption for the subsequent academic year will be conducted yearly. Depending on the grades, exemption may not be granted for the subsequent year.
- Academic Fee Exemption can be granted for the duration of the standard term (2 years) at most.
