	Year 1	Y	ear 2	Year 3	Year 4
	To achieve a TOEFL score of 80 and acquire breadth of knowledge by the end of Year 2			To acquire a broader and deeper knowledge and to develop a specialty
1.Ability to conduct directed research based on academic knowledge from across the field of Humanities and Social Sciences.	Introductory courses in Humanities and social Sciences provided in English Philosophy History Sociology Politics International Relations Economics Business Finance Qualitative / Quantitative Analysis: Introduction to Data Science Calculus Statistics I-II Linear Algebra Programming Qualitative Analysis	Required Study Abroad 16 credits for study abroad in any of 5 universities in 5 countries (Destinations) The USA Canada Australia New Zealand Philippine		FILA Departmental Course Thistory, Culture and Society World Wars in History Global Social Policy Modern Political Thought Sociology of Globalization Cold War and Decolonisation in History Education and International Development Global Ethics Transnational Migration Politics and International Relations Contemporary Political Theory Great Power Politics in the World International Political Economy International Institutions and Global Governance Citizenship and Democracy in a Global Age International Bargaining Comparative Politics Nonprofit Organizations and Public Sector Economics and Business Administration Intermediate Microeconomics International Economics International Economics Development Economics Management Science Marketing International Business Operations Management	elopment tions d bal Governance Global Age
2.Academic English proficiency and communication skills to employ in a global capacity	Academic Foundations I-II English for Academic Purposes I-II		Academic Writing
3.Cross-cultural understanding	Cross-cultural Understanding Second foreign languages		International Fieldwork I-II (Optional)	Requirement for Registration TOEFL iBT70 Requirement for Junior Paper TOEFLiBT80 Capstone
4.Identifying issues and working towards solutions	Freshman Seminar I			Seminar Seminar II	Seminar Seminar IV	