2. Points to Note When Applying

- (1) All documents must be written in either Japanese or English.
- (2) Ensure you attach a Japanese or English translation if any certificates or other documents you submit include languages other than Japanese or English.
- (3) The content of application documents cannot be amended after they are received by the university.
- (4) You may apply for only one division at a time; applications for more than one division are prohibited.
- (5) Once application documents and application fees are received by the university, they cannot be returned for any reason whatsoever.
- (6) If your application documents are found to contain any false statements, your acceptance and admission to the university may be revoked.
- (7) Application documents that are incomplete or submitted after the due date will not be included in the applicant selection process.
- (8) Repeated applications are acceptable for those who were unsuccessful at an earlier round.

Statement of Financial Eligibility

As a statement of financial Eligibility, the person paying expenses should complete and sign the form provided by the university, and a supporting document should be attached according to the requirements below.

- If the applicant him/herself will pay the expenses
 - A bank statement in the applicant's name (showing a balance of JPY 1.5 million or more)
- If a relative will pay by sending money from the applicant's home country
 - A bank statement in the name of the person sending money (showing a balance of JPY 1.5 million or more)
 - Documentary proof of employment
 - Documentary proof of annual income
 - Document verifying relationship with applicant (e.g., a copy of the family register, a certificate of residence, a notarized statement of kinship, etc.)
- If a scholarship will be used to pay
 - Documentary proof of scholarship payment specifying the amount to be paid, the period of payment, and the organization paying

(The allowance shown should amount to approximately JPY 1.5 million per year in total)

• If a Japanese resident will pay

- A tax document stating gross income (e.g., a photocopy of an income tax return counterfoil (Kakutani shinkoku hikaie no utsushi), a certificate of tax deducted at source (Gensenchoshuhyo)
- Documentary proof of employment (self-employed persons should provide a photocopy of the company registration (Tokibotohon no utsushi), an operating license (Eigyo kyokasho), or similar document)
- Certificate of residence
- If the Japanese resident is an acquaintance or friend, provide evidence of his/her relationship to the applicant (e.g., a photograph in which he/she appears with the applicant)

*If the applicant is applying for Academic Fee Exemption simultaneously, the financial capability will be reviewed.

In that case, submission of the balance statement is accepted even if the amount is below 1,500,000 JPY.

However, it is desirable to submit a proof of bank statement which shows at least 800,000 JPY or more as the minimum amount that can be spent on living expenses for a semester.

Academic Fee Exemption

At Soka University Graduate School, international students are granted full Exemption of Tuition (not including the admission fee). Applicants who wish to receive Exemption shall apply for the Exemption. Please submit the Soka University International Student Application for Academic Fee Exemption and attach official documents issued by public agencies stating the household income and income tax information for the most recent 1 year (*1).

*1: "Most recent 1 year" refers to 2022 (January to December) for Admission Phase One and 2023 (January to December) for Admission Phase Two.

* In principle, household income refers to those of the father and mother or an individual other than a parent if that supporter is primarily financing the household.

* If neither of your parents has an annual income, please submit the official declaration of no income issued by the local government (e.g., tax exemption form, pension receipt, etc.). In that case, please be sure to attach the annual income certificate of another supporter. Please note that the applicant can be self-funded if the applicant can submit his/her annual income certificate.

➤ Scholarship application results will be notified jointly with admission decisions to granted applicants only.

➤ After enrollment, a review of Exemptions for the subsequent academic year will be conducted yearly. Depending on the grades, an exemption may not be granted for the subsequent year.

➤ Academic Fee Exemption can be granted for the standard term (2 years) at most.

Under the current Pandemic situation, all interviews will be mainly conducted via ZOOM/Skype.

- In-person interviews will be held on the Soka University campus in Hachioji, Tokyo, in the Global Square Building, on the specified dates above.
- For video interviews, it is the sole responsibility of the applicant to ensure that suitable technology is available in their country of residence to perform the interview.
- Video interviews are required to verify the applicant's identity.
- Scheduling of the interview time will be at the discretion of the interviewers, but every reasonable effort will be made to take into account time zone differences.

VIII. Announcement of Application Results

(1) Application results will be announced through our website by the university administration on the designated date (See application schedule on page 3). The password to open the link will be notified by e-mail to each applicant. The application number of successful applicants will only be indicated on the result confirmation website.

- Please be advised that Soka University cannot respond to any inquiries regarding selection details, criteria, and results, regardless of whether they are passed or failed.

(2) Application numbers of successful applicants will also be posted on the Soka University Graduate School bulletin board located in Global Square Building 1F.

(3) No physical materials will be sent to applicants from the Graduate School Section. A letter of acceptance and admission procedure will be e-mailed to each applicant as a PDF.

IX. Procedure for Payment of Fees

Applicants approved for admission should complete the admissions procedure and pay admission and tuition fees, within the time limits prescribed below. The university will provide further written details when announcing admissions.

(1) Payment of Admission Fee: JPY 200,000*

*Please note: The admission fee is JPY 100,000 for Soka University graduates and those who completed the Japan Studies Center Program and graduated from the Division of Correspondence Education at Soka University.

(2) Payment of Tuition: JPY 325,000

Admission fee and Tuition for 2024 Academic Year Fall Semester (for reference only)

Fee category	Fees	Timing of payment
Admission Fee	JPY 200,000*	See Page No.2
Tuition	JPY 325,000
Total	JPY 525,000

- The amounts of tuition are fixed figures for the academic year 2024.
- The amounts of tuition are for one semester. This fee for a whole year is twice the amounts above.
- Please settle the admission fee first, then settle the Tuition. (Both of them can be paid at one time)
- Please complete the payment within each processing period. If the admission procedure is not completed within the processing periods, the applicant's admission will be revoked.
- If you decide not to enter the University for Personal Reasons following completion of the admissions procedure, the university will return to you the annual tuition, etc., excluding the admission fee. However, this applies only if you notify the university by the day before your entrance ceremony.

*Points to Note

- (1) If you do not complete the necessary procedures for payment during the time limits stipulated above, the university will revoke its approval of your admission.
- (2) Ensure that you pay your annual tuition and other fees in full during the time limits given. You may choose between making one payment (a lump-sum payment during the admissions procedure), or two payments (in two installments, one during the admission processing period and one during the second semester).
- (3) If you decide not to enter the University for Personal Reasons after completing the admissions procedure, the university will return your tuition, excluding the admission fee. However, please be advised that this applies only if you notify the university by the day before your entrance ceremony.

X. Other Matters

(1) Applying for a Certificate of Eligibility for Residence Status and Obtaining a Visa

In principle, non-Japanese applicants need to obtain student residence status once their admission to the university has been approved. After acceptance to the university, prospective students need to complete the procedures to acquire residence status, enter, and reside in Japan.

- Application by the university on your behalf

The university will apply for a Certificate of Eligibility on your behalf. Please submit the Google form for the Certificate of Eligibility Application during enrolment procedures.

- The Ministry of Justice approves certificates of Eligibility, and the university cannot assume any responsibility in situations where approval is denied.
- Even if the university applies on your behalf, the Ministry of Justice may require you to submit certificates or other documents as necessary.

(2) Expanded Scholarship Opportunities for International Students

International graduate students accepted into the graduate programs can apply for the following:

- Soka University Academic Fee Exemption Scholarship for International Students
- Soka University Makiguchi Memorial Education Fund Scholarship for International Students
- Teaching Assistantship opportunities.

Please refer to the link below for more information about each scholarship program.
