Mother : What time did you come home last night?

George : Oh, I don't know. At about one o'clock, I think.

Mother : It was after three o'clock.

George : I didn't say the exact time because it's always the same. If I tell the truth, you get

⁽⁵⁾cross with me.

Father : Why don't you go out earlier and come home earlier?

George : Nothing opens early. If I went out earlier, I wouldn't see anyone I know.

Mother : But what about school work? If you stay out till three o'clock, you don't get up until noon.

Father : And you are tired the day.

George : But I'm doing all right at school. I passed all my exams last term. The headmaster you if I hadn't passed everything.

Mother : But these days a pass isn't enough. If you passes, you won't get a good job when you leave school. If somebody has better marks than you, they will get the job. And if you only have poor marks, there will always be someone better than you.

George : But school is so boring. If I didn't go out at the weekend, my whole life would be boring.

Father : you speak to us! If I had spoken to my parents like that when I was , they wouldn't have let me go out for a week.

George : If grandad was still alive, I would ask him. I'm sure he wasn't as bad as you say.

Mother : If you don't stop contradicting your father, things will get worse.

George : OK, I promise to believe you and to work harder at school. Is that better?

Mother : Well, it's .

B

Kate : Hi, Lucy. How's it going?

Lucy : Oh, not so good.

Kate : Yeah, you look a bit 12 . What's wrong?

Lucy : I think I've got the flu. My throat is so sore, and I have this hacking cough that just won't go away. Every morning I wake up with this terrible headache and my muscles are sore all over. I feel like 13 !

Kate : Yeah, there has been a flu bug going around lately. My daughter has been sick with it for the last few days, and I just hope she doesn't give it to me. I've got too much work right now to get sick.

Lucy : 14 ! I'd love to just take a few days 15 and recover from this, but I can't. My boss is a real slave-driver. I don't think she'd let me have a sick day if I came to work in a coma. Besides, I don't want to go to the doctor. He'd just give me antibiotics, and I hate antibiotics.

Kate : Well, you should at least go down to the chemist's and get yourself some medicine.

Lucy : I have. I've been taking aspirin and cough syrup, but 16 . Now I think I'm getting a fever.

Kate : Yeah, you are a little bit hot. How long has this been going on?

Lucy : About four days now. It just keeps getting worse, too.

C

In a cafe

Mike : I've forgotten to phone David at work. I hope he's sent that contract to the customer in London. It was urgent.

Anna : . You are a real workaholic. Why don't you forget work and enjoy your holiday?

Mike : I suppose you are right.

Anna : Yes, I am right. Let's order some tea and cakes and again.

Mike : Well, you should know that I prefer coffee but cake sounds a good idea.

Waiter : Good afternoon.

Mike : Hello. We'd like a pot of tea and a cup of coffee, please. And what cakes have you got?

Waiter : I'll bring you the menu. Here you are. in a minute.

Mike : Thanks. Look at this. Toasted teacakes, scones and jam, coffee cake, lemon cheesecake, Black Forest cherry cake ...

Anna : Apple pie and cream, raspberries and vanilla ice cream, chocolate mousse ...

Mike : ! What are you having?
